FOOT BALL AND BANQUET
AWAIT THE PRESIDENT

Should He Visit Indianapolis Upon Invitation Tendered Will Be Urged to Witness College Game.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., September 1.—President Wilson comes to Indianapolis October 29 to speak before the Indiana State Teachers' Association, as he is invited to do yesterday by Senator Kern, an effort will be made to have the President stay over the following day and attend the foot ball game between Indiana University and Washington and Lee University of Lexington, Va., which will be played in Indianapolis.

Elaborate preparations are already being made for the game, as reservations have been made for Vice President Marshall, Senators Shively and Kern, Gov. Tilden and Gov. Stuart of Virginia, who is expected to lead a delegation from his state. Senator Shively is president of the board of trustees of Indiana University.

President Wilson will also be invited to attend the banquet of the "Y" men of the university, which will be held here the night before the game.

More than 10,000 teachers will be in Indianapolis for their convention.

CONSTANTINOPLE BRIDGE IS REPORTED DESTROYED

LONDON, September 1.—An Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that a submarine of the allies has blown up a portion of the bridge between Constantinople and the suburb of Galata.

It is not known whether this is merely an echo of the similar report of several weeks ago, which brought forth a denial from Constantinople.

PATRIOTIC INSTRUCTORS
MEET WITH G. A. R. HERE

Headquarters Will Be Opened at Raleigh Monday, September 27.

Committees Named by the National President, John B. Lewis, Are Announced.

John B. Lewis of Boston, national president of the National Association of Patriotic Instructors, has issued his last circular letter before the meeting of the association, which is to be held in Washington at the same time as the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, beginning September 27. He says in part:

"Headquarters will be opened at room 263, Hotel Raleigh, on Monday morning, September 27, at 9:30 o'clock, and all patriots are cordially invited to call and register and bring their friends."

"On Monday evening there will be a reception for the members and their friends at the Hotel Raleigh from 8 to 10 o'clock. It will be largely informal, a sort of 'get-together' evening. The president will be assisted in receiving by the officers and honorary vice presidents."

"The third annual meeting will be held at the Church of Our Father, corner of 13th and I streets, on Tuesday, September 28, at 9:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. At the morning session reports of officers will be read, proposed amendments to the constitution and new business transacted. There will also be a short memorial service for eight patriots who have died during the year. In the afternoon topics of patriotic and civic interest will be presented in ten-minute talks by prominent patriots. Following each paper time will be allowed for discussion. Members may invite friends for the afternoon session."

"The National Association of Patriotic Instructors will have a part in the grand reception by the various societies, to be held in the rotunda of the Capitol on Wednesday evening, September 29. President Wilson will hold a reception for all patriotic societies, particulars of which will be announced in the official program of the G. A. R. encampment."
